

Morgan Stanley

6 August 2026

Can Ozgel
70 West 37th st 801
New York, New York 10018

Dear Can,

We all enjoyed getting to know you and are excited to offer you a position as an Associate at Morgan Stanley in the Fixed Income Division in the New York office. Your employment is expected to begin on or about June of 2027 after completing all required onboarding actions (your "Start Date").

The offer includes an annual base salary of $150,000 and may include a discretionary pro-rated bonus. As an additional incentive to join Morgan Stanley, we are also offering a relocation payment and sign on bonus. Further details of your compensation are outlined on the proceeding pages.

As an employee of Morgan Stanley you will be eligible for a competitive package of employee benefits including: medical, dental, vision, life and disability insurance, and 401(k). Additionally, you will receive 20 days of vacation per year pro-rated from your Start Date.

Please take the time to review the terms of our formal offer, which are outlined in detail on the following pages and include important details about your compensation, benefits and the terms and conditions of your anticipated employment with Morgan Stanley.

Please confirm your acceptance of this offer, including the proceeding detailed terms and conditions, by providing your electronic signature. Please print and retain a copy of this letter for your reference.

Your "Start Date" will be determined upon completion of the onboarding process. You will receive further communication from us with details of where to go and what to bring on your first day of work.

Please call Caroline Paradis at 212 762-1483 if you have any questions or would like to discuss your offer in more detail. We would be thrilled for you to start your career with Morgan Stanley!

Sincerely,

Terms & Conditions of Employment

Annual Compensation

As of your Start Date, your annual Total Reward for 2027 will consist of an annual base salary of $150,000, which will be pro-rated from your Start Date, and may include a discretionary pro-rated year-end bonus. Your 2027 annual base salary will be paid in biweekly installments (generally every other Friday, or the nearest weekday preceding the Friday if it falls on a bank holiday). Your year-end bonus may be payable partially in cash and partially in the form of deferred incentive compensation under one of the Firm's compensation plans. Any deferred incentive awards will be subject to terms and conditions set forth in the applicable award documentation. Your year-end cash bonus will be payable when year-end cash bonuses are paid to similarly situated employees, and in no event later than March 15, 2028.

In order to be eligible for any year-end bonus, you must be in good standing (meeting the Firm's performance and conduct expectations) and have not given or received notice of your termination as of the date on which bonus decisions are communicated broadly to the eligible employee population.

Sign-On Bonus

You will receive a one-time cash payment of $40,000 ("Sign-On Bonus"). The Sign-On Bonus is payable in the calendar year of your Start Date and is contingent upon your commencing employment with the Firm and providing the Firm with a valid social security number prior to the time of payment. The Sign-On Bonus will not be considered earned until December 31, 2028. In the event you do not commence employment with the Firm after receiving the Sign-On Bonus or if you terminate employment or give notice of termination for any reason or receive notice of termination by Morgan Stanley, other than for an involuntary termination due to a reduction-in-force/reorganization, prior to December 31, 2028, you are required to repay this entire Sign-On Bonus at the earlier of the time you give or receive notice of termination or your termination date. The Sign-On Bonus will not constitute part of your Total Reward.

Benefits

Most of Morgan Stanley's US employees who work at least 20 hours per week are eligible for our standard package of employee benefits, including 401(k), medical, disability and others. If you are eligible, you will receive information from Morgan Stanley's Benefit Center shortly after your Start Date. If you have questions about what benefits Morgan Stanley offers, please call HR Services at 1-877-674-7411 or visit our website at mybenefits.morganstanley.com/new-hires. Nothing in this letter is a guarantee of any particular benefits for any period of time; Morgan Stanley may amend or terminate its benefits at any time.

Relocation

You will receive a relocation payment in the amount of $10,000 (the "Relocation Payment"). The Relocation Payment is payable in the calendar year of your Start Date and is contingent upon your commencing employment with the Firm and providing the Firm with a valid social security number prior to the time of payment. The Relocation Payment will not be considered earned until December 31, 2028. In the event you do not commence employment with the Firm after receiving the Relocation Payment or if you terminate employment or give notice of termination for any reason or receive notice of termination by Morgan Stanley, other than for an involuntary termination due to a reduction-in-force/reorganization, following your training period and prior to December 31, 2028, you are required to repay the entire Relocation Payment at the earlier of the time you give or receive notice of termination or your termination date. The Relocation Payment will not constitute part of your Total Reward.

Vacation

In accordance with Firm policy, for 2027, you will be eligible for 20 days of vacation, pro-rated from your Start Date. Unused accrued vacation days will not be paid out at termination, regardless of the termination reason, unless required by applicable state or local law.

Tax Related Provisions

All payments provided for in this letter are subject to applicable withholdings and deductions.

You understand and agree that if any provision of this letter fails to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code or any regulations or Treasury guidance promulgated thereunder, or would result in your recognizing income for United States federal income tax purposes with respect to any amount payable under this letter before the date of payment, or to incur interest or additional tax pursuant to Section 409A, the Firm reserves the right to modify such provision; provided that the Firm shall maintain, to the maximum extent practicable, the original intent of the applicable provision without violating the provisions of Section 409A.

At-Will Employment

All employment with Morgan Stanley is at-will which means that nothing in this letter should be construed as a guarantee of employment for any period of time, and that you or the Firm may terminate your employment for any reason, with or without cause, at any time.

Background Clearance and New Hire Paperwork

Morgan Stanley is required to perform due diligence to ensure that individuals are not disqualified from employment with the Firm because of certain criminal, civil, or regulatory events. As a result, you will be required to undergo fingerprinting and your fingerprints will be used to check your criminal history records, including records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. In addition, it is important that you complete the required onboarding tasks assigned to you, including completion of any background check forms, immediately in order to avoid delay of your onboarding. Failure to complete these tasks and/or receive background clearance will result in a delay to your Start Date. To the extent that you may be disqualified from employment or the results of the background check, including the fingerprint check, are unsatisfactory, you understand and agree that this offer is null and void and your employment will be terminated.

We remind you that this offer is contingent upon providing official transcripts from your school demonstrating proof of graduation.

U.S. Work Authorization

Pursuant to federal law, you are required to complete the Form I-9 and provide proof of your identity and eligibility to work in the United States. Fieldprint (reportdelivery@bigreport.com) will send an email providing instructions on how to complete Section 1 of the Form I-9, which must be completed no later than the close of business of your Start Date. In addition, in order to complete Section 2 of the Form I-9, you are required to present original documentation evidencing your identity and work authorization in person at a Fieldprint location. Failure to provide the required documentation may delay your Start Date or result in the termination of your employment.

Licensing and Registration

Your employment is contingent on your obtaining and retaining all licenses and registrations as Morgan Stanley determines necessary for your position. Any such licenses and registrations that you do not have are required to be obtained as soon as practicable, and no later than the time period outlined for your division in the attached addendum. You understand and agree not to engage in any activities that have a licensing/registration requirement unless you have obtained such licensing/registration.

Outside Business Interests and Personal Trading Accounts

As of your Start Date and consistent with local law, you will be required to disclose any outside business activities, private investments, and any and all information concerning any outside brokerage/securities accounts over which you could be expected to exercise influence or control (such as a brokerage account for your spouse or domestic partner or a brokerage account on behalf of your or your spouse's or domestic partner's dependent child) so that the Firm may assess whether there are any real or potential conflicts of interest associated with any such external activities or accounts. Outside business activities include, but are not limited to, being an employee, independent contractor, sole proprietor, officer or partner of any other organization or company. You hereby authorize Morgan Stanley, if it requests, to receive an electronic feed or obtain duplicate confirmations and monthly brokerage statements and, if Morgan Stanley requests, will help it to receive such information directly from the broker-dealer. In addition, you understand and agree that, as a condition of employment and as permitted by law (absent a written waiver granted by the Compliance Department), should Morgan Stanley decide in its sole discretion that these outside brokerage/securities accounts must be maintained here, you will transfer any outside brokerage/securities accounts to Morgan Stanley or E*Trade.

New Hire Training and Firm Policies

You understand and agree that you are required to promptly complete all mandatory online new hire training requirements including the electronic acknowledgement of the Firm's Code of Conduct. You further agree to review and comply with all applicable Firm policies and procedures.

Prior Employment

You understand and agree that you may not bring onto Firm premises any confidential information, whether documents or other tangible forms, relating to your prior employers' business. Your electronic signature confirms that you are not subject to any contractual or other restrictions/obligations that are inconsistent with your accepting this offer of employment and performing your duties on behalf of Morgan Stanley.

Arbitration Agreement

As part of accepting this offer of employment, you agree to the terms and conditions of the Firm's Arbitration Agreement, which is attached, unless you opt out of the Arbitration Agreement by submitting the New Hire CARE Arbitration Program Opt Out Form within 30 days of your Start Date. To obtain the form once you are employed by the Firm, type “newhirecareoptout” in your internet browser and then click the “Download” button at the bottom of the webpage that displays. If you accept this offer and do not timely submit an opt out form, you will be deemed to have agreed to the terms of the Arbitration Agreement and the arbitration provisions of the CARE Guidebook as of the date of your acceptance of this offer. The Arbitration Agreement provides, among other things, that you agree to have all Covered Claims (as defined in the Agreement) resolved by final and binding arbitration on an individual basis (i.e., non-class action, non-collective action and non-representative action).

US Political Contributions - Pay To Play

The Morgan Stanley U.S. Political Contributions Policy requires all employees to pre-clear all U.S. political contributions and solicitation activity, and certain contributions may be prohibited. If you accept this offer, you may be considered a “Restricted Person” under Morgan Stanley policies and therefore could be subject to further restrictions on political contributions and political solicitation activities. Pay-to-play rules may restrict the Firm’s ability to be compensated for certain types of business with a government entity for two years after a covered political contribution is made. These rules also include a provision that apply to political contributions made by you up to two years prior to your Start Date.

As a result, if you have not already done so, prior to your Start Date, you are required to submit the U.S. Political Contributions Disclosure form, identifying all U.S. political contributions and payments made by you, or a political action committee controlled by you, to any U.S. federal, state or local candidate, official/incumbent, political party or PAC during the two-year period immediately preceding your Start Date. You understand and agree that this offer is contingent on complete disclosure of all your contributions and the Firm’s determination that it will not be precluded from doing business or earning compensation as a result of contributions you have made.

You further agree not to make or solicit any political contributions from the date of your U.S. Political Contributions Disclosure Form until your Start Date, unless such contribution has been pre-cleared in writing by Government and Political Activities Compliance (gpac@morganstanley.com).

Integration Clause

This letter, any annexes (if applicable), and any addenda/attachments as referenced in this letter constitute the entire understanding and contain a complete statement of all agreements between you and Morgan Stanley and supersede all prior or contemporaneous verbal or written agreements, understandings or communications. You acknowledge that you have not relied on any assurance or representation not expressly stated in this letter.
